remove the search bar and the words from the discover section as you can see in the 1st img and make it lke second image instead of the search bar and the word make a search icon and history like icon and when user clicks on respective icons in discover section user will directs to respective page as you can see in the 3rd and 4th img so analyze and make it i want exactly like this for discover section and lastly add user authentication system where user can login and sign up through verified gmail account or google account at the time of sign they have to put there 1st name and last name and gmail acc and mobile number and etc.. and when user signup

---

Then email will be verified by OTP